Foreword from the Secretary-General

Dear Partners and Delegates,

As we gather for the 2nd NELS Strategic Project Meeting in Accra, Ghana, from 23rd to 26th February 2026, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you on behalf of the All-Africa Students Union (AASU).

We are truly delighted to host this important meeting. This gathering marks another significant milestone in our shared commitment to empowering student leaders, strengthening intercultural collaboration, and advancing the quality of higher education across Africa and Europe.

To make the most of this enriching experience, it is essential to be well-prepared. This logistical pack has been carefully developed to guide you through your stay in Ghana, from travel arrangements and visa requirements to accommodation, health, and local experiences, ensuring your comfort, safety, and productivity throughout the meeting.

We encourage all participants to read through this document carefully and take note of key details regarding travel, health, currency, and security. Ghana is a beautiful country with a warm and welcoming people, and we are confident that your time here will be memorable, enlightening, and inspiring.

On behalf of AASU, I thank all partners and delegates for their dedication and collaboration in making NELS a transformative initiative. We look forward to engaging in fruitful discussions, strengthening partnerships, and celebrating our shared vision for student empowerment.

Peter Kwasi Kodjie
Secretary-General
All-Africa Students Union (AASU)

1.0 TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

All international flights to Ghana arrive at the Kotoka International Airport (KIA).

2.0 VISA AND ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

All participants travelling to Ghana from countries that are not visa exempt must have valid visas to enter Ghana. Please check if your country is visa exempt

If you DO NOT have a Ghana Embassy in your country, don't worry. The organisers will provide you with a pre-approved visa letter that will allow you to board your flight and take your visa at the Kotoka International Airport upon arrival in Accra.

3.0 HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

3.1 Yellow Fever Vaccination

Yellow fever vaccination is mandatory. Deportation by the Ghana Immigration Authorities is an option for failure to comply. If yellow fever vaccination is contra-indicated for medical reasons, a letter of medical exemption is necessary.

Please note that vaccination MUST be done at least three ③ weeks prior to departure.

3.2 General Healthcare and Medical Emergency

There is a clinic on the UPSA campus for any medical emergencies. The organisers do not intend to take up prolonged or chronic illnesses. Kindly travel with your medical history if you imagine this is needful. Participants are advised to bring their regular prescribed medication for health care during the trip.

4.0 ACCOMMODATION

Ange Hill Hotel has been recommended to accommodate all participants throughout the event. The hotel is only 3.5 kilometers from the Kotoka International Airport. The hotel is surrounded by a lot of shopping malls, eateries, and nightlife options, making it splendid for an event of this caliber.

4.1 Hotel Name and Address

Hotel Name - Ange Hill Hotel

Location (Address) - East Legon, Accra

4.2 Other Hotel Options

Participants who prefer alternative accommodations nearby may consider the following hotels:

📍 Mensvic Grand Hotel (East Legon)

📍 Tomreik Hotel (East Legon)

All these hotels are within close proximity to UPSA, ensuring convenient access to the meeting venue.

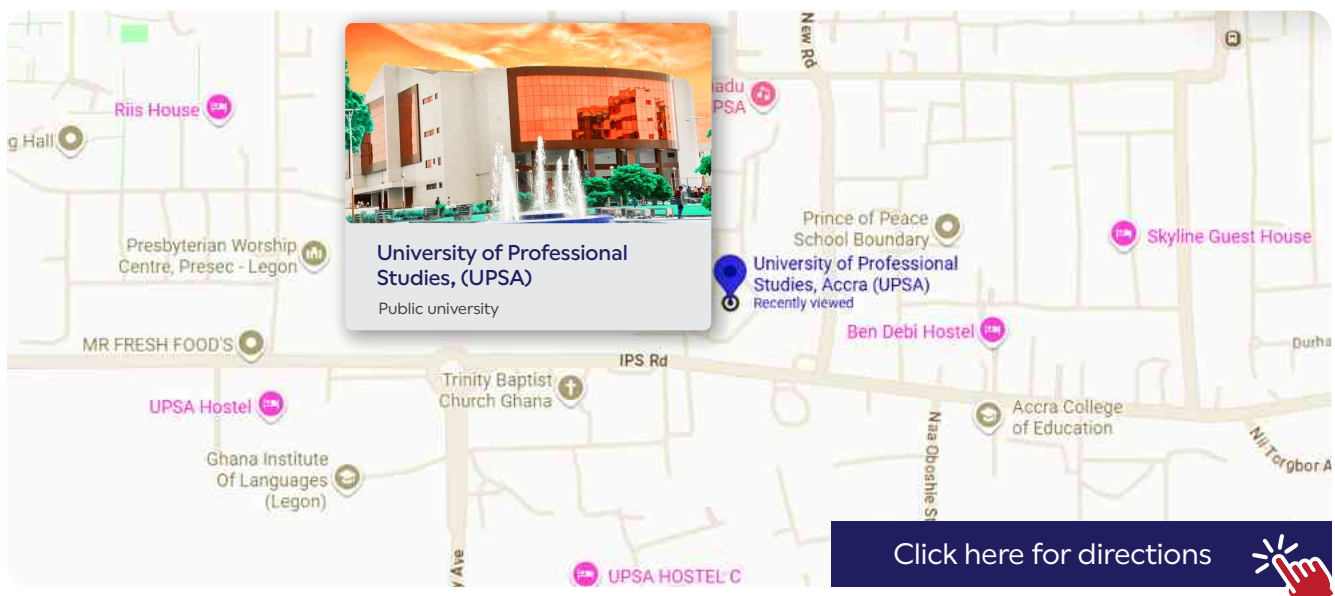

5.0 GROUND TRANSPORT

Participants are encouraged to coordinate with the hotel for airport pickups. Also kindly share your arrival details with the organisers for coordination.

Should you wish to explore Accra outside of the planned group activities, kindly note that ride-sharing in Ghana is available through Uber, Yango and Bolt.

6.0 MEETING VENUES

The meetings will be held at the Kofi Ohene Konadu Auditorium of the University of Professional Studies, Accra (UPSA)

6.1 Social Activities

In addition to the project meetings, participants will have the opportunity to experience Ghana's rich culture and history through guided tours in both Cape Coast and Accra.

The Cape Coast Educational and Cultural Tour will include visits to some of Ghana's most iconic heritage sites; the Kakum National Park, where participants can enjoy the famous canopy walkway and nature trails and the Cape Coast Castle, a UNESCO World Heritage Site rich in African and diaspora history.

In Accra, participants will explore major cultural landmarks, including the National Museum of Ghana, the Kwame Nkrumah Mausoleum, and the vibrant African Market.

7.0 CURRENCY

The Ghana Cedi (GH¢) is the local currency used to perform transactions in Ghana.

Currently, the cedi equivalent to a US Dollar is $ 1.00 = GH¢ 12.15 (As at 13 October 2025)

Banks in Ghana operate between the hours of 8:00 AM and 4:30 PM. ATMs work 24/7. Some supermarkets, malls, restaurants and hotels accept credit/debit cards as a mode of paying for items purchased.

Please convert cash to US Dollars, Euro or British Pounds Sterling if you plan to carry cash.

You may not be able to find Forex in Ghana that can accept other currencies other than what has been quoted above.

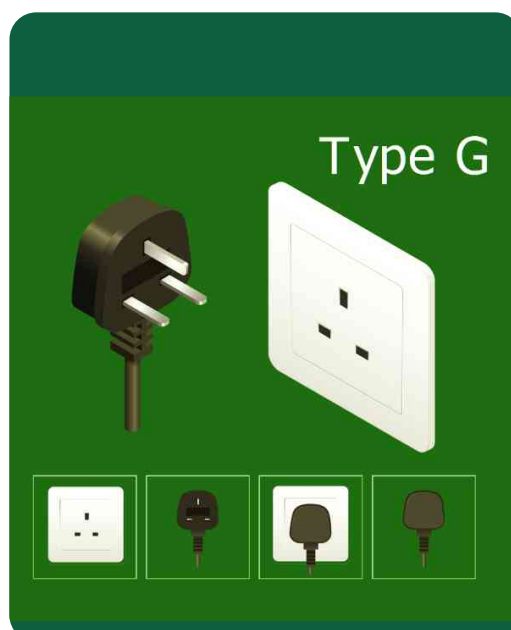

8.0 ELECTRICITY

All power sockets in Accra provide a standard voltage of 220V with a standard frequency of 50Hz. Most power plugs and sockets in Ghana are type G. You may rarely find a type D. Find a sample in the image attached.

We encourage you to bring travel adapters if these are not your home socket types.

You can use all your equipment in Accra if the outlet voltage in your own country is between 220V-240V. This is the case in most of Africa, Europe, the United Kingdom and most countries in Asia.

If the standard voltage in your country is in the range of 100V-127V (which is most common in the US, Canada and countries in South America) you might need a voltage converter in order to use your gadgets in Ghana.

9.0 WEATHER

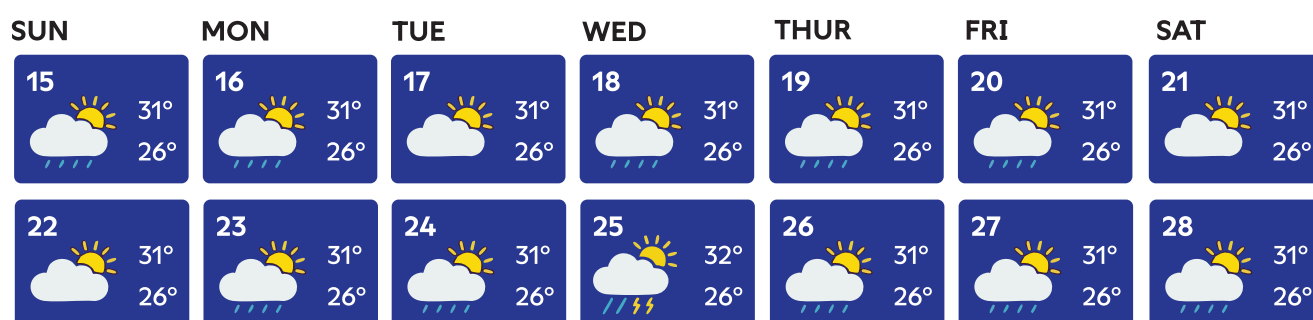

February in Accra is generally warm and sunny, with occasional light coastal breezes. The average daily high/low temperatures are around 31°C/26°C, offering bright days and comfortable evenings. Participants can expect mostly clear skies throughout the meeting period.

During the visit to Cape Coast, the weather will be slightly cooler and more humid due to its proximity to the sea, with temperatures averaging 30°C/24°C. Light clothing is recommended for comfort during the outdoor excursions at Kakum National Park and the Cape Coast Castle.

Participants are advised to pack light, breathable clothing, as well as a light jacket or shawl for cooler evenings and air-conditioned meeting rooms. A hat, sunglasses, and sunscreen are also recommended for the excursions and city tours.

Staying hydrated and protecting yourself from the tropical sun will ensure a comfortable and enjoyable experience during your stay in Ghana.

Participants are advised to pack appropriate clothing for weather changes.

10.0 WEARING OF BADGES

10.1 Wearing of Badges

Participants are advised to wear their badges at all times during the event for easy identification.

10.2 Badge Collection

To receive your badge, you will be requested to show your passport to persons assisting at the registration desk.

11.0 INTERNET CONNECTION ON SITE

The organisers will provide internet access at the activity sites. Details will be communicated to delegates on arrival.

12.0 SECURITY IN GHANA

Ghana is considered to be a safe country compared to others. While violent crime rates are relatively low, it is important to remain cautious to avoid petty crime.

As an international delegate, it is important to exercise caution and adhere to any security advice provided by the organisers, even in a peaceful and secure country like Ghana.

As a measure to ensure the safety of delegates, security personnel will be on post at the hotel and at the meeting venue.

12.1 Care of Personal Belongings

It is advised not to leave personal belongings such as bags, cell phones or laptops unattended, and to avoid carrying large amounts of cash.

All participants are encouraged to take good care of their personal belongings, such as bags, phones, laptops, ID cards and other vital documents, as the organisers will not take responsibility for missing items.
